Dear Dr. Bajaj,

Thank you for the opportunity to resubmit our manuscript, JoVE59281 "Integrating visual psychophysical assays within a Y-maze to isolate the role that visual features play in navigational decisions". You will find our responses to your editorial suggestions along with those addressing the reviewer comments in our 'Response2Reviewers' document where original comments are provided in grey and our responses are in black.

All authors have approved the manuscript for submission to JoVE. We thank you for your time and look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
Bertrand Lemasson
