Good evening, Vineeta,

My apologies for the delay, and thank you for your patience. Attached is our updated manuscript which we believe contains all additions and edits that addressed the comments.

In addition, please see the email exchange between Mrs. Koolbergen of IOS Press and myself below concerning the permission to reuse figures, which we were able to obtain.

Please let me know if you require any additional information. Thank you!

Onderwerp: Permission for reprinting published figures

Good morning, Mrs. Koolbergen,

I'm emailing in regard to the reprint permission of one of my colleague's publication in the Journal of Alzheimer's Disease (doi: 10.3233/JAD-180151). We would like to re-use Figure 2 (Title: Nests built from crosscut paper.) for a methods publication in a different journal, which requires email correspondence granting permission. The authors on the paper are cc'ed, and the first author has given permission to use Figure 2 in this paper.

Please let me know what the proper steps are in order to obtain permission.

Thank you.

Best regards,

Caroline Neely, PhD
