Dear Editor,

I published one journal article Application of “macromolecular crowding” in vitro to investigate the naphthoquinones shikonin, naphthazarin and related analogues for the treatment of dermal scars in Chemico-Biological Interactions this year.

Now I am planning to publish the protocol in another journal, which will need to use the previous published figure in Chemico-Biological Interactions as evidence to demonstrate the protocol.

I will make sure the published figures are cited property in another publication, is that possible for me to have your permission on this?

Thank you very much and look froward to seeing your reply
