

Dear Dr. Nguyen,

Please find our revised manuscript (JoVE61562R3), titled “Differentiation of monocytes into phenotypically distinct macrophages after the treatment with human cord blood stem cell (CB-SC)-derived exosomes”. We appreciate editorial and reviewers’ comments that are very helpful for us to improve the quality of this manuscript. We have revised the manuscript according to editorial and peer reviewer’s comments, with tracking changes. Please feel free to let me know if you have additional comments. Many thanks for this invitation again and give us this opportunity to publish our work in JoVE.

We appreciate your kind consideration.

Yours sincerely,
