Dear Dr. Saha,

We would like to thank you for the editorial comments for our manuscript (JoVE62905) entitled “In Vivo Measurement of Hindlimb Dorsiflexor Isometric Torque from Pig”.

The specific responses to all comments are noted in the tracked version of the manuscript. All comments were noted as “completed”. On behalf of my co-authors, we look forward to the publication of our manuscript. Please do not hesitate to contact me if there are any issues related to this revision that you would like to discuss.

Sincerely,
Sarah Greising, PhD
